Proactive Strategies for Challenging Children

(A Professional Development Workshop Focusing on Practical Strategies for Attention Deficit Hyperactivity, Autistic Spectrum Disorder and Oppositional Behaviour)

CRD Consulting is a company created by teachers, who are committed to facilitating workshops that provide innovative and creative strategies for administration, teachers, teacher aides, childcare centres and parents for use when working with challenging children and youth.

About the Presenter

COLLEEN DEVEYRAC graduated from Queensland University of Technology with a Master of Learning Innovation, The University of Calgary, Canada with a Bachelor of Education, specializing in Adolescent Studies and a Bachelor of Physical Education. She has been working with youth for over 20 years and specifically teaching youth at risk for over 10 years.

In Canada, Colleen worked as a Primary and a Secondary Teacher, Director of a Federal Government Internship Program for At Risk Youth and the Deputy Principal of an Alternative High School.

In Queensland Australia, she has created and coordinated the POWER Program (an alternative early intervention program) and was employed as an Advisory Visiting Teacher for Behaviour and Learning Engagement. She has been trained in Restorative Justice Practices and Managing Young Children's Program (MYCP).

Colleen has been presenting workshops on Proactive Strategies for Challenging Children to childcare centres, parents and schools across Australia, Canada and New Zealand. Colleen is deeply committed to helping people formulate innovative and dynamic plans to reduce stress and to help challenging children and youth recognize their full potential.
