Dr. Liane Holliday Willey is an inspirational speaker who helps her audience truly understand the importance of accepting people with differences. All her life, Liane knew she was different, but only after one of her family members was diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome did Liane realize the reason behind her own differences; she too was diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome. Willey has authored several internationally bestselling books including "Pretending to be Normal: Living with Asperger Syndrome" (forward by Tony Attwood), "Asperger Syndrome in Adolescence: Living with the ups, the Downs, and Things in Between", and "Asperger Syndrome in the Family: Redefining Normal". Liane has contributed to many additional books and journals, and is currently the senior editor for Autism Spectrum Quarterly, published by Starfish Specialty Press. Her life story helped to inspire the feature film Adam. Today Liane runs a horse boarding facility.
